

Learning in K-6D

We love to learn in K-6D. We do a lot of hands-on activities and love listening to stories. We love art because our artwork makes our classroom look bright and colourful. We are learning how to subtract, how to describe a character from a familiar book and we are learning about our feelings.

